Walt Disney – Biography

Without the creativity of one man, there would be no “happiest place on earth,” also known as Disneyland. Walt Disney was born in 1901 in Chicago, Illinois. As a child, he enjoyed drawing and even sold his pictures to his neighbours. When he was sixteen, he joined the Red Cross and drove an ambulance in France during World War One. After the war ended, Disney started making short cartoons in Kansas City, but soon ran out of money. He decided to find his fortune in Hollywood.

He came to California with a suitcase and $20 in his pocket. It took a while, but Disney began to enjoy success with his cartoons. He created Mickey Mouse, the most famous character ever. Then in 1937, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs premiered. It was the first full-length animated movie, and a huge success. Disney made many more movies that we still watch today, including Pinocchio, Dumbo and Bambi.
