SECOND TERM (2022 – 2023) (MANDATORY IN-PERSON CLASSES)

Greetings!

The 2nd term of the academic year 2022 – 2023 at Pakistan Urdu School Bahrain will begin on Sunday, the 4th of September 2022. In our previous letter dated 20/06/2022, it was informed that "the school has a plan of in-person education from September 2022."

The Ministry of Education has advised mandatory physical attendance in schools. This news was published in "Gulf Daily NEWS" and "The Daily Tribune." Please note that class attendance will be mandatory from September 2022 in all schools and in all educational stages. (<https://www.gdnonline.com/Details/1138998/In-person-classes-mandatory-from-new-academic-year>), (<https://www.newsofbahrain.com/bahrain/82989.html>).

The school management welcomes all the students for in-person education and the parents' support is required in the following areas to enhance the quality of education:

1. In discipline, punctuality, and proper uniform.
2. In imparting knowledge with training.
3. Adherence to the rules and regulations set by the school for a better upbringing for your children.
4. In all other school-related matters.

The evaluation policy will be the same as informed and followed in the first term; however, summative exams and formative assignments, WRS, and projects will take place physically at school.

The school will begin at 7:20 am and will finish its educational activities as follow:

Primary: Dismissal at 12:40 pm

Middle: Dismissal at 01:10 pm

Seniors: Dismissal at 01:20 pm
